'Be Kind'

How would you describe the expression on Tanisha's face?

A cartoon illustration of a young girl with voluminous, curly red hair and freckles. She is smiling broadly, showing her teeth. She is wearing a black shirt with a white checkered pattern. She is sitting at a light-colored table. On the table, there is a clear glass containing a light-colored liquid and a small, rectangular box with a lid. The background is a simple, light-colored wall.

I thought Tanisha would smile, But she ran into the hall instead.

Are the other children aware that Tanisha is still sad?

Why is she painting a picture for Tanisha?

I almost told Tanisha that art was my favorite class,
but I didn't want her to leave again.
So I painted purple splotches and added some green
until I had a bunch of beautiful violets.

Should I have handed her my napkin?
Let her borrow my sweatshirt?
Spilled my juice so everyone stared at me instead?

What does it mean to be kind anyway?
