

EYS

We had a fabulous time in early years on Science day. After learning about plastic bottles and finding out how long they stayed around on our planet we found out about recycling and reusing things. We then used our STEM skills and made our own bottle recycling machine out of old cardboard boxes.

