Netherhall St James CE (VC) Infant and Nursery School
Christian Newsletter

At our school, we want our children to understand that peace is about more than living in a world without fighting. Peace can be found in the way we treat others, the choices we make and the way we respond when things feel difficult. It can mean helping someone who is upset, using kind words instead of angry ones, listening to another person's point of view or finding a quiet moment to feel calm.

As a Christian school, we will explore how Jesus taught people to show love, kindness and forgiveness, and how we can bring peace to our own lives and the lives of others. We will encourage the children to think about how they can be peacemakers by showing respect, solving disagreements fairly and helping everyone to feel safe, valued and included.

Talking About Peace at Home

You can help your child explore our value of peace by talking together about what peace means in everyday life.

Here are some questions you could discuss together:

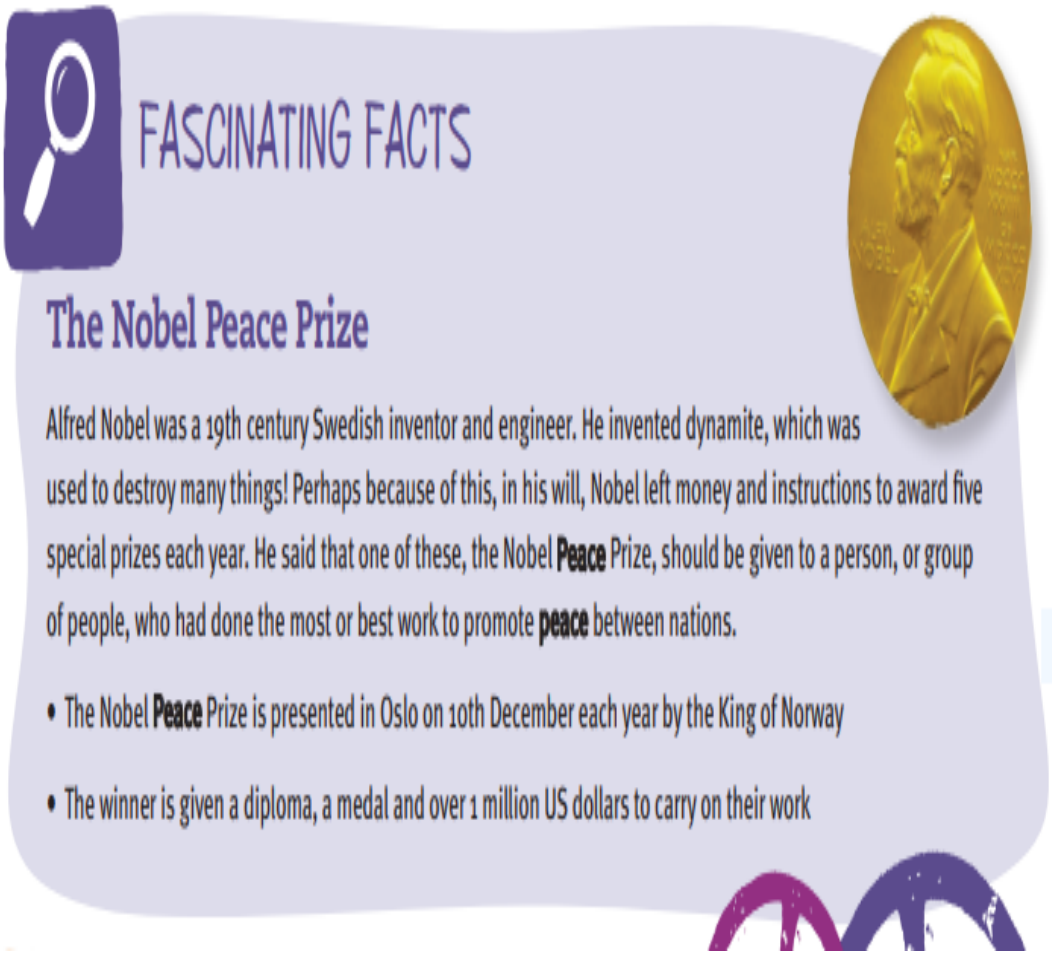

- What does peace mean to you?
- When do you feel peaceful and happy?
- What helps you feel calm when you are angry or upset?
- How can we help someone who is feeling sad or worried?
- What could you do if you and a friend wanted different things?
- How can our words and actions help others feel safe and happy?
- What does it mean to be a peacemaker?

Home learning challenge

Can you find out the name of someone who has won the Nobel peace prize? Tell your teacher for a sticker or Dojo point in school. Can you draw a picture of them?

Don't forget to send us pictures via Dojo or the school email address: infants@nlconline.org.uk

What does the Bible say?

"Blessed are the peacemakers, for they will be called children of God."
Matthew 5:9
