

LANCASHIRE ENTERPRISE
ADVISER NETWORK

Version 2.
All about careers.
Explore the future you.
KS3

April 2020

Key Stage 3 – Years 7, 8 & 9

Which careers match your personality?

Interested in the film industry? Construction? Digital? STEM? NHS?
Are you creative but unsure of options?

Careers menu. Click and explore.
Note down your "I never knew that!" moments

Do you use Twitter? Look at National Careers Week.

Want to do some worksheets that are real-life puzzles in the world of work?

What about some challenges?
Makes a change
from the usual
home-schooling

Develop your skills for work.
Try a new approach

Money matters

Careers that can help in a coronavirus crisis
and other jobs
that might be right
for you

5th biggest employer in the world? Want a job where every day is different?

Heard of Microsoft?
Hinkley Point? Coca Cola? Time to find out more

Think about the your favourite subjects. Can you link these to careers?

Let's get everyone talking careers. Ready to debate?

Find out what a job involves and is it right for you.
Click on the links.

- Careers and the coronavirus
- There are so many career routes to the job you want. Click to find out more

Note down your “I never knew that!” moments

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Fine tune your talents, uncover new ones and put them into action.

- A quick log-in then you're good-to-go.
- First of all, rate your skills
- While they may not be immediately obvious, you already have lots of employability skills you've learned from school, family and friends, casual jobs, even hobbies. Find out more.
- Put your skills to the test
- Use the right language. Look at this dictionary of skills to boost your applications.

Note down your "I never knew that!" moments

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Ensure you're in the knows, not in the know nots when it comes to money. Scroll through this for key words and activities. Keep it open and reference when needed.

- First things first. Take a money personality quiz
- Take control of your financial future with these interactive activities
- Click here to steer clear of bad money habits

Note down your "I never knew that!" moments

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Tired of being home-schooled. Try these challenges.
Can you find any others?

- Here are 4 challenges to do at home to get you started
- What about these. Ask someone to allow you on Facebook
- What about the Burberry challenge?
- Could you make a videogame in 1 week? Register here ready for the challenges to start. May 4th
(Stars Wars Day)

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Research using these links. There'll be a lot you already know but most of it will be new.

- Want to know why the number 350 is significant? I know you'll learn something new Click here for this 30 mins video resource.
- Do you know what an Allied Health Professional is? Click here for another video
- At this time, caring qualities are essential. Do you have the skills? You may be surprised. Take the quiz.
- Heard of Microsoft? Hinkley Point? Coca Cola and others? Time to scroll through and find out more \(Register 1st\)

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Note down your "I never knew that!" moments

Think about what you like and don't like. This should help you decide what is and isn't for you:

- A good way to start is to look at the subjects you enjoy
- Interested in working in football? Airport security? Do you know what HR is? Product Development? Register, log-in and explore
- How would you get on in an interview? Be brave and give this virtual interview a go. What's the worst that can happen? (Click on start)

Note down your "I never knew that!" moments

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Do you have a good careers vocabulary?

- Learn these spellings and definitions so you can communicate like an employee (Click on Careers Key Terms)
- Get your friends and family involved. Debate these topics:

“Bricklaying is a man’s job”

“Caring jobs (nurse, teacher, vet etc.) are for females”

“Only rich people go to university”

“Apprenticeships aren’t for academics”

“You need all As in your A Levels to go to University”

“Creative Industries don’t make any money”

Top tip for success...do some research first!

[CLICK FOR
MAIN MENU](#)

Note down your “I never knew that!” moments